INSTRUCTIONS

- (1) Write the entire message plainly on the other side within marginal lines.
- (2) PRINT the name and address in the two panels provided. Addresses to members of the Armed Forces should include rank or rating of the addressee, unit to which attached, and APO or Naval address.
- (3) Fold, seal, and deposit in any post office letter drop or street letter box.
- (4) Enclosures must not be placed in this envelope and a separate V-Mail letter must be sent if you desire to write more than one sheet.
- (5) V-Mail letters may be sent free of postage by members of the Armed Forces. When sent by others postage must be prepaid at domestic rates (3c ordinary mail, 6c if air mail is desired).

V-Mail Service provides the most expeditious dispatch and reduces the weight of mail to and from personnel of our Armed Forces outside the continental United States. When addressed to points where micro-film equipment is operated, a miniature photographic negative of the message will be made and sent by the most expeditious transportation available for reproduction and delivery. The original message will be destroyed after the reproduction has been delivered. Messages addressed to or from points where micro-film equipment is not operated will be transmitted in their original form by the most expeditious means available.

Hiya Joe,

Don't know why in the heck I'm writing you. - Just feel like I ought to be writing someone and you are the victim - worse luck?!

Oh, yes, - the calendar from Esquire arrived a couple of days ago! - Hm! - Quite a nice one, don't you think? Of course I had in mind the one they put out with the tiny dates up in the corner - but, ahem, - the "figures" on this one will do very nicely! - Boy, oh, boy - what they don't do for morale! - Can't make up my mind whether they build it up or tear it down! - Such pultritude!

Am sending some more pictures home. - some are already on their way, and if I get the chance, I'll write another letter tomorrow, enclosing some more. - Guess I could have made a regular letter out of this and enclosed some here, too, - but the idea didn't come off hand - and I'll be damned if I will let all of this go to waste!

Have had some "rough" ones lately, so you hadn't better let up on the crossing of fingers yet awhile. - Me, I'm busy watching you know what! Love Joe
